The International Research Group "Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict" was founded in October 2010 in Hamburg. It aims to bring together empirical and theoretical studies focusing on sexual violence in different theaters of armed conflict in a series of workshops and conferences. Historians, legal scholars, sociologists, philosophers, psychologists, experts in cultural studies, and human rights activists develop common research questions and a framework for comparison, present and discuss their work, and explore opportunities for cooperation.

Seminar organized by the Centre d'Histoire de Sciences Po, the UMR "Identit s, relations internationales et civilisations de l'Europe", the Online Encyclopedia of Mass Violences and the Hamburg Institute for Social Research.

Responsable : Elissa Mail nder, Centre d'histoire de Sciences Po

LIEU: CERI - 56 rue Jacob, 75006 Paris
